DARIE ABROAD.

From the Blue Grass to Gibraltar.

As Rev. George Darsie, of this city, now on his way to the Holy Land, has not as yet favored the ROUNDABOUT with a promised letter, we reproduce the following from the Christian Guide of last week. On Sunday he was at Cairo, Egypt, and after an excursion to the Pyramids and Hillopolis Monday and Tuesday, started Wednesday up the Nile to the First Cataract and Philae, and will return to Cairo on the 10th of April.

Twenty-seven years ago I began my ministry by supplying for five months the pulpit of the lamented A. N. Gilbert in the city of Baltimore, during the time that he, with Jacob B. Thomas, of the Paca-street church, made a trip to Egypt and the Holy Land. While so doing, I often asked myself, "Shall I ever be my lot to make the privileged journey of the two dear brethren whom we are so closely following with our prayers and interest?" That question is now answered affirmatively, and the cherished dream of my life has begun its fulfillment. God is thus ever good.

I left my home in Frankfort, Kentucky, the morning of Wednesday, February 13, via the Chesapeake & Ohio. A pastorate of eighteen years makes strong and tender ties, and many tears fell as good-byes were spoken. The length of the journey, both in miles and months, and the supposed perils of travel, especially travel by sea, made the apprehensions of my friends greater. I fear, than would be justified either by correct knowledge of the facts, or by that faith in the providential care of our Heavenly Father which should characterize all his children. If I trust in Him who rules both on land and sea, it is no appreciation of the true and precious love they have for me, and the value of which to me is above rubies.

Kentucky and the South have probably never seen before so severe a winter. I had often looked with admiring eyes upon the wild and entrancing scenery of the Allegheny and Blue Ridge mountains from the car windows of the smooth and comfortable C. & O. trains, but never before had I seen it clothed in the grim garb of winter! Every river from Frankfort to New York was ice locked. Every landscape the eye fell upon was a study in black and white. The Piedmont and Shenandoah valleys, that have always smiled upon me heretofore with visions of summer-like loveliness, had caught the universal infection, and gone into winter quarters. The Ohio, the Kentucky, the Big Sandy, the Great Kanawha, the New, the Green Briar, the Susquehanna, could all bear up an army of elephants. If the peach crop and the orange crop for the coming season have been killed, I suppose the ice crop at least is secure.

Both in war and peace, Manassas seems to be a hard place for some people to get by. In war it sometimes got too hot, but in peace it sometimes gets too cold. A big snow drift near there had caught five strong engines in its icy arms the week previous, and held them mercilessly till they were dug out. The New York train bound for Louisville was delayed from Thursday till Sunday. In fact, but one train had gone through before ours reached the sticking point, and so it was some relief when we learned that we had gotten through safely and on time. Many have said to me that winter is a bad time to go traveling. But the easy reply is that to flee from such a winter is the very thing to do.

Two days in New York are not too much in which to lay in the various articles you need for the proposed journey. Among them you are strangely affected by a letter of credit which reads pounds instead of dollars. And when you part with a bundle of greenbacks for a clinking handful of napoleons you feel more strangely still. I never before realized how much of the home feeling there is in the money to which I have all my life been accustomed, and how repugnant foreign to my feelings are the name and touch of other money. And it helps me to understand the ancient proverb that to accept a nation's money was to acknowledge allegiance to its sovereign. That was almost what I felt myself doing when I allowed the French gold to be placed in my hand!

I was gladdened before sailing by a call from Chaplain C. Q. Wright and his wife, and saddened to find the beloved B. B. Tyler prostrated by a severe attack of the grip.

Saturday, February 16, at 11:30 a. m., was my time for sailing, and the good ship "Normanna," of the Hamburg American line (the oldest German trans-Atlantic line) my steamer.

A sentence in the account of one of Paul's many voyages came to me with new and fresh meaning as I went aboard. It was, "And they accompanied him to the ship." Why should the historian Luke, say that? Before I had like experience that utterance always seemed to me both incidental and insignificant. But it does not now.

The hour of sailing is a painful hour. You are parting from all you love. You are going off to unknown lands and far away scenes. The heart sinks, the lip trembles, the eyes fill, and your nerves threaten to give way. Happy for you then if dear friends are at your side to speak words of cheer, to give you warm hand-grasps and to wave you adieu from the shore as long as you remain in sight. Did it mean all this for Paul? It certainly meant all this for me that my dear brothers, A. McLean (who was in the city attending a missionary conference) and S. T. Willis, pastor of the Morristauied church, accompanied me to the ship. Theirs were the last familiar faces my eyes rested on as for the first time in my life I parted from my native land. And like unto their friendly presence were the letters, telegrams and the flowers that greeted me as I entered my stateroom, all of them sweet and touching farewells from dear ones far away. If you ever want to cheer an ocean voyager on his way, a remembrance sent to his ship and received after he has started, is of all methods the most effective.

It is known that I go abroad as a member of the Congregationalist's Oriental Party. The party is accompanied by Dr. A. E. Dunning, of Boston, editor-in-chief of the paper. It numbers thirty-eight and two or three others will join it in Italy. There are nine ministers in the party, representing four different religious bodies, Baptists, Presbyterians, Congregationalists and Disciples of Christ. Of course the Congregationalists predominate, it being their party. As to ladies and gentlemen it is about an even division. All told it is proving a most congenial company, and, speaking for myself, the better acquainted I become the more pleased I am. I did not know a single member of it before starting. I anticipate having, when our long journey ends, an increase of about forty tried, true and life long friends. We are from twelve different States: Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Ohio, Michigan, Georgia and Kentucky. Massachusetts leads with seventeen, New Jersey is second with six, while Kentucky, Georgia, Ohio, New Hampshire and Rhode Island bring up the rear with one each.

Our good ship was built on the Clyde five years ago, and is outspeeded by only two of the other "Ocean Greyhounds." And the very fastest of them has beaten her time but sixty-three minutes. She is five hundred feet long, fifty-seven and a half feet wide, has a total displacement of eight thousand tons, and cost a million and a half dollars. Her two engines have each an eight thousand horse power and require three hundred tons of coal daily to supply them. Her capacity is three hundred and sixty cabin passengers and a thousand stowage. She carries no freight. We have on board this trip, two hundred and ninety-one cabin, ninety-five steerage and three hundred and thirty crew and officers; so that we are in all in the ship seven hundred and sixteen souls. Our daily distance is about four hundred and fifty land miles, a trifle over nineteen miles an hour. Our ship has eleven water-tight compartments, with a pump in each, which could empty it in fifteen minutes.

Life aboard ship is a great novelty. You have four meals a day—breakfast, luncheon, dinner and tea. The last named comes at nine o'clock at night. You are called to each meal by a cornet, which sends its shrill blasts down the cabin passages, and sometimes is sounded so near your stateroom as to startle you out of your appetite. Two of these penetrating calls are issued for each meal, the first preceding the second from five to twenty minutes. Everything in your stateroom is fastened tight—glasses, water-bottles, wash bowls, etc. The spittoons are of a suggestively liberal pattern! You get into your berth over a high board, which projects a foot above your bed. In fact everything is fixed for rough seas. And sure enough you have them.

Our first day out was smoothness itself. Every body was elated, and reported at the dining-room with great promptness and hilarity. But after that the waves gradually rose and kept rising till the spray washed the decks, and the motion of the ship felt like a high swing at a Sunday-school picnic. And with the rise of the waves came the fall of the passengers. A difficult word at an old-fashioned spelling-match could not have snowed them down more rapidly. The ladies, especially, succumbed to the situation, and the gentlemen were not far behind. A man chasing his hat on the street of a windy day is scarcely more ludicrous, and gets little less sympathy than a person smitten with sudden sea-sickness; and yet, if reports be true, it is about the most disagreeable non fatal illness the flesh is heir to. I do not make my immunity thus far a ground of boasting, for it sometimes attacks the best and oldest sailors like a thief in the night. I only thank my stars when I see a new victim casting his bread upon the waters, that my turn has not come yet.

You see a pleasant side of human nature aboard ship. Acquaintances are easily formed, people seem unusually agreeable and the most delightful conversation goes on all the day. You are impressed with the flattering idea that the cleverest people in the world are the ocean travelers!

Victor Hugo says: "What is more beautiful than the land? The sea. What is more beautiful than the sea? The sky." There is no place where you get so much of both sea and sky, in all their infinite changeableness and beauty, as on an ocean steamship. The eye is never weary and the sense of enjoyment is never sated or dull, so long as the billows roll before you, and the musical swish of the waters sounds in your ear. Your heart within you is ceaselessly saying: How delicious, how restful, how soothing, how health-giving!

The balmy air came to us on the fourth day out from New York, and stayed with us from that on. I bade winter good bye the nineteenth of February, and greeted spring the twentieth. Not the least advantage of a trip to the Mediterranean at this season is your escape from a month or more of harsh and gloomy winter. Henceforth the zephyr displaces the blizzard, and you enter the region "where summer sings and never dies."

We sighted the Azore Islands on the fifth day, and Captain Barends kindly granted us the privilege of running in between them, that we might have a closer glimpse of their mountain heights and their rocky shores. They are settled and governed by the Portuguese, and we turned our glasses with great curiosity upon the queer-looking village that nestled against the side of one of them, whose single-story, whitewashed houses seemed evidently built of stone. But a stronger feeling than curiosity inspired the gaze of many who for days have felt that life on ship board is all a vain show, and who were glad to have a sight of land—solid, stable, un-moving land—even if they could not be on it.

But here we are at Gibraltar on Sunday afternoon, February 24, after a run of eight days and a little over; and all are glad to avail themselves of the opportunity to post letters and escape for a few hours from their long rocking in the cradle of the deep.

GEORGE DARSIE.

An Eager and a Nipping Wind.

A continuous down pour of rain, inclement weather, generally in winter and spring, are unfavorable to all classes of invalids. But war and active infused into the circulation counteracts these influences and interposes a defense against them. Bitters, stomach bitters, most thorough and effective of stomachics and tonics, not only enriches the blood but accelerates its circulation. For it shifts or purifies symptoms of rheumatism and kidney complaint, particularly prevalent these seasons. It is the best possible remedy. It is also invaluable for dyspepsia, liver complaint, constipation and nervousness. Never get out on a winter or spring but never without it. Elderly persons and the delicate and convalescent are greatly aided by it.

PENSIONERS IN THE PEN.

Old Soldiers Doing Time, but Their Pensions Go On.

The following soldiers of the late war, confined in the Kentucky Penitentiary in this city for crimes committed since the close of the war, are drawing pensions from the government:

Judge A. M. Pulliam, sent up for manslaughter, $20 a month; Wm. Middleton, manslaughter, $30; Thos. C. Hershman, horse-stealing, $16; Leander Wages, manslaughter, $12; R. T. Rains, malicious cutting, $12; H. N. Drake, manslaughter, $10; J. L. Jones, manslaughter, $12; Milton Bled soc, murder, $10; M. M. Britton, malicious cutting, $8; George Sinclair, housebreaking, $6; John L. Wigginton, murder, $4; G. W. Cope, manslaughter, $4; N. O. Gambill, manslaughter, $12.

As they have but little use for money, except to buy tobacco and other little articles, the pension of some of them is accumulating in the hands of the Warden and they will have quite a sum to their credit when their time is out.

Those who have families, of course, send it home for the use of their wives and children.

Base Ball.

A dispatch from Lexington says: It is still an open question whether Lexington is to have a first-class professional team this year. A number of base ball enthusiasts stand ready, so it is said, to put up the money for such a team, and wish to apply for entrance into the Southern League, in case that Association is revived. In case that is not feasible, it is proposed to establish a league of bluegrass clubs, including Paris, Frankfort, Georgetown, Nicholasville, Winchester, Versailles and Danville. As yet no move has been made towards carrying this idea into effect.

There have no definite steps been taken as yet towards organizing a club in this city, but we understand a first class player in Louisville wants to come here and captain the team, bringing with him a No. 1 pitcher and several other good men, the nine to be completed with local talent. As soon as the weather becomes settled the cranks will begin to think about the matter and it is safe to say we will have some sort of a team here before the first of May.

What Does This Mean?

In the last primary for county officers in this county election officers entered into an agreement to mark the ballots of voters that could not read for candidates they (the election officers) desired elected, thereby defeating the will of the voter, and fraudulently placing men in office to which they were not honestly elected. The voters will not stand this rascality much longer—Argus, March, 14th.

This is certainly a violation of law, and if it has been done at a primary election, what is to prevent it being done in a general election? Why has this fraud not been investigated before?

The grand jury meets week after next and this matter should be brought before that body, the guilty parties indicted and punished. Such rascality should be promptly dealt with, so that it will not be attempted again.

Endeavor Entertainment.

The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of the Christian Church gave a social entertainment in the chapel of the church Thursday evening.

The programme embraced a vocal duet by Misses Lizzie Gum and Alta Rogers, vocal solos by Mrs. B. G. Williams and Miss Mary Hale, with piano accompaniment by Miss Bessie Willfert, reciting by Miss Mima Humphries, recitation by Mrs. T. M. Goodnight and piano solos by Misses Maud Ponder and Bonnie HockenSmith.

Refreshments consisting of ices and cakes were served during the evening. The Frankfort Orchestra also rendered several pieces.

Found the Ball.

Ben Jackson, yesterday morning, with a common needle, picked out a 32-calibre ball from the under side of his left knee, which was fired into his hip by Pat Haly some four years ago, while in a difficulty. The ball had worked down and had given him considerable trouble. The physicians he had consulted had failed to locate it.

Will Change His Location.

Mr. C. S. Bell, jr., has leased the room in the new building of Messrs. Todd Bros. next to Mr. John R. Todd's confectionery, on St. Clair street, and will remove his wholesale fruit and vegetable store from Ann street to that point as soon as the building is completed.

Not Over Yet.

Winter seems to be inclined to remain with us for a while yet. After three days of bright sunshine, a light rain came Tuesday night which was followed Wednesday morning with snow and cold, which checked the early gardeners in the preparation of their ground for early seeding.

An Easter Hop.

The German Benevolent Society will give a calico hop on the evening of Easter Monday, April 15th, which promises to be a very enjoyable affair.

In sending your regrets or acceptance to an invitation use the sheet that polite society has adopted for that purpose. A note sheet or an ordinary letter sheet is no longer considered good form.

A full line of these papers will be shown by Messrs. Flexner Bros. at the store of LeCompte & Gayle next Monday and Tuesday. 11

STILLHARPING ON SILVERWARE

And we are producing harmony by low prices and high quality. The market rate of the white metal enables us to give you good value and beautiful workmanship. The brilliancy of our solid silver articles covers no flaws. Every one is perfect, and a tempter to the pocketbook. Heavily plated Forks, Knives, etc., at light figures. The slight of time will not affect the wearing qualities of our silverware, or mar the beauty. Your table is enhanced by an exquisitely chased Tea Set, and dessert seems of finer flavor when eaten with Spoons of dainty pattern.

M. A. SELBERT, THE LEADING JEWEL R. 233 ST. CLAIR ST.

Did He Get There? You Bet.

We see from the Youngstown (N.Y.) News, a copy of which has been sent us by our former townsman, Mr. E. C. Went, who is now in the drug business at that place, that he was a candidate for re-election as treasurer of the village at the election held on Tuesday, and it is safe to bet he got there in great shape. There were three tickets in the field—the Independent, Good Government and Citizens—and he seems to have been solid with all parties as his name was on all three tickets for treasurer, and consequently was like the Irishman's duck. The annual financial statement of the village is published in the same paper, and judging from Mr. Went's report as treasurer for the last year, which is part of the same, the amount of cash he handles during the year is not a sufficient inducement for him to gather up the funds of the village and paddle over to the Canada side of the Niagara river, and it is safe to say that every nickle which passes through his hands will be faithfully accounted for. We are glad to see our old friend is appreciated in his northern home and trust he is gathering in wealth in large quantities from his business. If he is still playing Old Probs. it is to be hoped he has furnished the New Yorkers and Canucks a better article of weather than some de dealt out to us here in the years gone by.

Might Be Corrected.

There ought to be some way of preventing an audience at the Opera House from being disturbed at the most interesting part of the play by useless noise and senseless laughing in the gallery. A policeman stationed in that part of the hall, with instructions to eject persons who are guilty of these practices, might remedy the evil. We would respectfully suggest also that the hall be made light enough before the performance and between the acts to enable those who patronize the play to see to read their programmes, as many persons fail to catch the thread of what is going on upon the stage by the hall being so poorly lighted as to prevent them from reading the cast or synopsis of the piece being enacted.

Monday morning about 11 o'clock a defective flue caused the roof of the kitchen at the residence of Mr. W. T. Eubanks, on the corner of Main and Cross streets, South Side—the old Dr. Hall place—to catch fire and the house was damaged to the amount of about fifty dollars. The firemen went over promptly in response to the alarm from box 15 and soon extinguished the flames. In driving out of the engine house for the fire, plugman Ed. Taylor was struck in the face by one of the hooks by means of which the harness is suspended from the ceiling and had his cheek badly cut, the blood flowing freely from the wound for awhile.

Starting up by Degrees.

The Street Railway Company is progressing slowly in the work of getting their line in operation, owing to the long time required to repair and return the mortors and generator sent to the manufactories several weeks ago. On Tuesday the freight motor was gotten out and made one trip to the O. F. C. Distillery and passenger car No. 4 made a trip up to the corner of St. Clair and Main that evening, but when the cars will begin to run regularly it will be impossible to tell until all machinery needing repairs is returned.

Housekeepers Bazaar.

The chief feature of the bazaar to be given by the young ladies of the First Presbyterian Church will be a display of aprons for sale from various States and foreign countries, also homemade aprons of all descriptions.

Six tables, representing six days of the week, will have for sale appropriate articles for household uses. The bazaar will begin on Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Tea and chocolate will be served during the afternoon and a full supper of substantial and ices served later, beginning at 5 p. m. Admission 10 cents, full supper 50 cents.

Grasp the Opportunity

Our enterprising druggist, P. H. CARPENTER, cordially invites you to try a 25c bottle of Dr. Hale's Household Cough Cure. This new remedy acts quickly on the bronchial tubes, throat and lungs, lessens the desire to cough and heals mucous membrane. If consumption it will cure you. Pleasant to take. The children like it.

Two Small Fires.

Tuesday morning a spark set fire to the roof of the residence of Mr. John W. Rodman, on Todd street, and the same morning a defective flue set fire to the weatherboarding at Mr. R. B. Jilison's, on High street. Both fires were extinguished with small loss.

RING FOUND—A lady's ring, of twisted gold wire, with ruby or garnet setting, was picked up upon the street Thursday. The owner can hear of same by calling and paying for this notice.

THE NEW F. F. V. LIMITED

Commencing Sunday, May 13th, the F. F. V. Limited will leave Cincinnati daily at 12.20 noon, arriving at Washington at 7.40 a. m., Baltimore 9.00 a. m., Philadelphia 11.20 a. m. and New York 1.40 p. m. The train will consist of Composite Car, Elegant Day Coach, with Smoking Compartment, Dining Car, Pullman Sleeping Cars of the latest and most improved design, and an Observation Car. Emphasis is especially placed on the Observation Car. Built by the Pullman Company from Chesapeake and Ohio plans, the F. F. V. Observation Cars serve their purpose better than any others that have ever been constructed.

As the F. F. V. Limited is the only train having an Observation Car attached, it necessarily follows that the Chesapeake and Ohio R'y alone has scenery interesting enough to demand an Observation Car. The F. F. V. Limited is the only train running through from Cincinnati to New York that enables the business men to transact business in Cincinnati one day and New York the next. It is the only train for Jersey City Coast resorts, which are reached by the F. F. V. at dinner time instead of in the evening. It is the only train that enables business men to transact business in Cincinnati one day and reach Washington for breakfast the next morning. It is the most desirable train for New England resorts, connections being made in the Union Depot in Washington with the Colonial Express running through to Boston which reaches New Haven 4.10 p. m., New London 5.30 p. m., Providence 7.15 p. m., and Boston 8.30 p. m. The F. F. V. is the only modern train lighted throughout with electricity, carrying a Dining Car and an Observation Car.

The Washington and Atlantic Express, also an Electric Lighted Vestibuled train, will leave Cincinnati at 7.00 p. m., reaching Washington 2.40 p. m. and Old Point Comfort 6.00 p. m. Connection is made at Washington with the Boston Express or the Limited, reaching New York about 9.00 p. m. At Norfolk connection is made with the Old Dominion Steamship Line, reaching New York 3.00 p. m. the next day.

THE BIG FOUR ROUTE

GEO. A. LEWIS, Editor and Pub.

FRANKFORT, MARCH 23, 1895.

COMING HOME.

Mr. J. W. Graham Appointed Agent of the Adams Express Company in This City.

The Louisville Times of Monday contained the announcement that Mr. J. W. Graham, General Agent of the Adams Express Company in that city, would be retired in consideration of long and faithful service, and placed in charge of the office in this city. Mr. Graham is an old Frankfort boy, who has been in the employ of the company for thirty-one years, starting in as a clerk in the Louisville office in 1863 and rising gradually until he became General Superintendent of this district, of which position he was relieved several years ago and made general agent at Louisville. We understand that had he remained in the position of General Superintendent it was his intention to remove his family here to reside, and his being sent to the home of his boyhood to spend his last days in the service of the company is but carrying out his most ardent wish to get back home again.

Mr. S. T. Fortune, who has had charge of the office here for the past ten years, is also an old employee of the company, having been in its service for twenty-nine years, but he has been left in the dark as to what they propose to do with him. His many friends here will regret to see him sent elsewhere and will part with him with regret.

Don't Know Him by That Name.

We would suggest to our beloved brother of the Louisville Times that if he wishes to be familiar with the Hon. James Conquest Cross Black, Congressman from the Tenth Georgia district, that he call him Conc., as we boys knew him when a school boy at the old stone school-house at Woodlake, in this county, and as he is known at Stamping Ground, where he was raised. When he speaks of Jim Black very few people in the localities named know who he is talking about. But it makes no difference whether he is known as Jim or Conc. to the Goober Gravelers of his district, here's hoping, for boyhoods friendship sake, that he will get there at the November election, leaving his opponent Watson to find out "where he is at."

A True Friend.

"A friend in need is a friend indeed." Every family should be prepared to treat scalds, burns, bruises, wounds, cuts, &c., by keeping a box of Dr. Hale's Household Ointment handy. No other remedy gives such quick relief or exerts so soothing and healing effect. For irritated eyelids, sore nostrils, chapped lips and hands, rough skin, boils, feliens, sores, etc., nothing equals it. Price 25c. and 50c. at P. H. CARPENTER'S drug store. c

Church Entertainment.

The young ladies of the First Presbyterian Church will give an entertainment in the parlors of the church on Thursday, March 28th, from 5 o'clock in the afternoon until 9 in the evening and from 9 until 12 in the morning of Friday, March 29th. They will have aprons of all kinds for sale and numerous articles to be used every day in the week. The price of admission will be ten cents and a full supper will be furnished for 50 cents.

A New Choir.

A choir of boys and girls has been organized at Ascension Episcopal Church and made their first appearance at the services Sunday. They were dressed in cassocks and the music made by them was exceedingly sweet and added very materially to the interest of the service.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT

FRANKFORT, MARCH 23, 1895.

To—

Hast thou not heard in days of old
How, from the ivory and gold,
A sculptor chisels an image peer
Of human form, divinely fair?

And how tormented with despair
When heart and soul had centered there,
'Till Venus, with her pity moved,
Laid back with life the thing he loved?

So maiden thus my life began—
Affection by the ideal won—
For Fancy dlist with nature cope
And Love was born without a hope.

A distant star, a phantom grown—
A thing to touch of life unknown,
'Till thou didst come amidst the strife
To breathe immortal breath of life.

Y. M. C. A.

Determined to Go On With the Work.

A mass meeting of the business men of the city in the interest of the Young Men's Christian Association was held at the Christian Church Sunday afternoon, which was presided over by Col. Chas. E. Hoge and was addressed by Mr. Henry E. Rosevear and Judge R. H. Thompson, of Louisville; Revs. R. L. McCready and F. S. Pollett, Rev. Dr. Blayney, Major H. S. Hale and others. A vote approving the movement was taken and the chairman authorized to appoint a finance committee to raise money to set the Association on its feet. At night a union meeting of all the congregations of the city was held at the First Presbyterian Church. The house was crowded and many could not gain admission. Major H. S. Hale presided and Mr. Rosevear made another address explaining the object and aims of the Association, after which Rev. W. C. Taylor, Rev. D. Clay Lilly, Mr. R. K. McClure and Major H. S. Hale made short talks and Col. Hoge announced the names of the finance committee he was authorized by the afternoon meeting to appoint. The proceedings were interspersed with music by a choir made up from all the churches of the city.

About two hundred and twenty-five young men have already announced their determination to become members of the Association and they have raised about $1,100 for the purpose of fitting up suitable quarters, but it will take about $2,000 more to run the Association and the finance committee was appointed for the purpose of securing subscriptions from the business men of the city to that amount. They have been at work this week and have secured quite a large sum.

Fire Friday Night.

While the family of Mr. D. B. Walcutt were at supper, at their home on Third street Friday evening of last week, the servant girl discovered fire in an adjoining bed room and gave the alarm.

Mr. Walcutt ran in and found his little son John's bed on fire, caught it up and carried it out and extinguished the flames. In doing so his hands were painfully burned, his face scorched and his hair and mustache singed considerably. The fire was caused by the chimney being so thin that the heat from the fire in a grate in the dining room set fire to the paper on the wall in the bed room which communicated to the bed, the head of which was touching the wall. The head board of the bed, feather bed and mattress were all destroyed. The alarm was telephoned in from Mr. Walcutt's residence, but he had the fire out before the fire department arrived.

The Modern Way

Commends itself to the well-informed, to do pleasantly and effectively what was formerly done in the crudest manner and disagreeably as well. To cleanse the system and break up colds, headaches and fevers without unpleasant after effects, use the delightful liquid laxative remedy Syrup of Figs.

Got the Contract.

Mr. John E. Glenn was awarded the contract for constructing a stone wall along the front of the Public school grounds, on Second street, by the Board of Education Tuesday evening, over seven other bidders. The price to be paid is $2.50 per yard for excavation and foundation and $1.05 per lineal foot for Bedford coping.

Entertainment in the Country.

Mrs. L. D. Hancock entertained quite a number of friends at her home on the Midway pike, in this county, on Wednesday evening last, in honor of Mr. George Hancock and bride, who have just returned from a trip through the South. She was assisted by Mrs. Vogel, of Chicago. The parlors and dining room were beautifully decorated and supper was served in elegant style, after which dancing was kept up until a late hour. Quite a number of ladies and gentlemen from this city were in attendance.

A Handsome Display.

Messrs. Weitzel & O'Donnell had their spring opening of dress goods, &c., on Monday, and had on exhibition some of the finest dress goods, of the latest patterns, ever before handled by them. The store was tastefully decorated with dress goods of all kinds, presenting a very pleasing appearance to the eye, and a large number of ladies called to examine the spring styles as well as make purchases. These enterprising young men are always up to date with their goods and have the latest novelties on hand. It is not too late yet to call and take a look at their goods. Call and see them.

Fire Sunday Night.

About one o'clock Sunday night the grocery store Mr. Llewellyn Peyton, on New street, South Side, was destroyed by fire. The fire was well underway when first discovered and before the fire department could arrive was a total loss, though they succeeded in confining the flames to that building. The house was owned by Mr. G. H. Sargent and the loss to him is about $500, covered by insurance. Mr. Peyton's loss on stock is about $1,000 with $800 insurance.

St. Patrick's Day.

Sunday was bright and sunny, something unusual for St. Patrick's day, but was not celebrated by our Irish citizens in another way than in "wearing of the green," numerous green neckties, ribbons and sprigs of shamrock being seen upon the streets. Monday evening Rev. Father Donnelly, of White Sulphur, delivered a lecture upon "Irish Character" at the Church of the Good Shepherd before a large audience.

Resigned.

Mr. John W. Pruett has resigned his position as Councilman from the Third Ward and Mayor pro tem. He has been in Chicago since last October and will probably locate in that city. The vacancy will be filled by the Council. Should Mr. S. T. Fortune be transferred to some other point by the Adams Express Company there will also be a vacancy from the First Ward.

Republican Committee to Meet.

The Republican County Committee will meet at Sower & Ahler's Hall at 2 o'clock on Monday, April 1st (County Court day), for the purpose of fixing the time for holding the County Convention to appoint delegates to the Republican State Convention which meets in Louisville on the 20th of May.

DEATHS OF THE WEEK.

A Rich Harvest for the Grim Reaper.

BRYANT—Mrs. Fuzz Bryant died Wednesday night at her home on East Main street, after a brief illness, aged about 80 years. The deceased was a sister-in law of Mrs. Isabel Montgomery, with whom she has made her home of late years, but was formerly a resident of Council Bluffs, Iowa, to which place the remains were shipped Thursday afternoon for interment.

CALLEY—Mr. Mike Calley died Friday night of last week at his home, a mile and a half from the city, on the Versailles pike, after a protracted illness. He was a native of Ireland but came to this county when a young man and by toil and economy had accumulated considerable property. He was an honest, hardworking man, correct in all his dealings and leaves two sons and one daughter as well as a large number of friends to mourn his death. His funeral took place Sunday afternoon from the Catholic Church.

CROWWELL—Mrs. Lizzie Jesse, wife of William Crowwell, Esq., died Thursday morning at 2:30 o'clock, after an illness of five weeks with typhoid fever. The deceased was a daughter of Col. George M. Jesse, of Henry county, had been married less than two years and leaves to her broken-hearted husband a bright little boy four months old. Of a lovely disposition which drew to her the hearts of those with whom she came in contact, having just located in a bright new home and with everything which made life to her worth living, the silver cord was loosened all too soon and a large circle of devoted relatives and friends are overwhelmed with grief for her loss. Her father, mother, sisters and brothers, who had been constant and devoted in their attentions during her illness, were with her when the end came, and now that all is over will return to their homes with hearts bowed under an exceeding weight of woe, the grandmother taking with her little Willie, who—too young to realize his terrible loss—will be tenderly cared for and nurtured as was the loved one who is gone. The grief-stricken young husband, whose heart and home are thus shattered, has the sympathy of a large circle of friends and of those who sorrow with him.

The funeral took place yesterday morning at 11:30 o'clock, from the residence on South Shelby street, the services being conducted by Rev. W. B. Taylor, of the Christian Church, of which the deceased was a member.

ELLIS—Mrs. Phillipa Ellis died at the home of her son, Mr. Thomas Ellis, on the South Side, at 4 o'clock Monday morning, aged 86 years. The deceased was formerly from Shelby county and had only recently removed to this city. The remains were taken to her old home Tuesday morning and interred at Mt. Tabor Church.

GLANTON—Mrs. W. A. Glanton died at the home of her husband in Eddyville on Tuesday and the remains were brought here for interment, the funeral taking place from the Christian Church Thursday morning. The deceased was formerly Miss Sullivan, of this county.

NOEL—Mr. Silas M. Noel, an old and well known resident of this county, died Thursday morning at 6 o'clock, at his home just below Leestown, after a lingering illness, aged about 65 years.

His funeral took place yesterday afternoon from his late residence and the remains were laid to rest in the family lot in the cemetery.

Matrimonial.

IRELAND-JILLSON—Mr. George T. Ireland, of Pleasureville, and Miss Mary Jillson, youngest daughter of Mr. R. B. Jillson, were married Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at the residence of the bride's parents on High street, in the presence of a few friends and relatives, Rev. W. B. Taylor officiating. The newly wedded couple left shortly after the ceremony for a short bridal trip, but will return to the city to-day and take rooms with the bride's parents for the present.

Births.

DEAN—In this city on Friday, March 15th, to Mr. Gus Dean and wife, a son.

HERNDON—In this city, on Friday, March 15, 1895, to Judge W. C. Herndon and wife, a son—John Presley.

THOMAS—In Augusta, Georgia, and Thursday March 14th, to Mr. Laudon A. Thomas and wife, a daughter—Ellen Polk.

Frank E. White, Minneapolis, Minn., writes: Have used two boxes of your Pile Cure and must say it has done wonders for me. I would not know I ever had the piles only when I stoop low. The itching is all gone. Sample free. J. W. Gayle, Sole Agent.

The World's Fair Tests showed no baking powder so pure or so great in leavening power as the Royal.

On Official Business.

Mr. Thomas James, of Newport, Grand Master of Odd Fellows in the State, and Mr. R. G. Elliott, of Lexington, Grand Secretary, spent Monday in the city investigating a matter affecting one of the Lodges in this city and a Lodge in another part of the State, which called for their official attention.

Seed Potatoes! Seed Potatoes!

I will receive in the next few days five car loads (about 3,000 bushels), of northern potatoes direct from New York and Michigan. These potatoes will not be bought in a small way from Cincinnati or Louisville but will come through in the same cars they are loaded in, so you can depend on getting pure northern stock and not Ohio river stock, as is very often sold for northern stock. I will be headquarters for seed potatoes this season and want your trade, and to get your trade will make you low prices. Call and see me and get your seed potatoes, at retail and wholesale. C. S. Bell, Jr., Ann street, next to Luckett's stable. 26-1f.

Given away for a few days only, commencing Saturday, March 16, 1,000 boxes, each containing one week's treatment (trial size) of Wright's Celery Capsules, at J. W. R. Williams & Co's Drug Store. Any person afflicted with Liver, Kidney or Stomach Complaints, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Sick Headaches, Biliousness, Catarrh and Malaria can get one of these boxes free. 26-2t.

Low Rates

CRUICKER & STARKS

Quality Corner.

News very scarce. Only quality calls are made and we have not time to discuss matters of interest after the usual compliments are passed.

The dance at Capt. Willis Reardon's was quite an enjoyable affair, there being two ladies present and gentlemen without number.

Strayed or Stolen—Two verdant gentlemen from Tioga neighborhood. When last seen they were going a 2:40 gait in the direction of Stoney Creek.

Mr. D. W. Bryant and family spent Saturday and Sunday with the family of Mr. James Pulliam.

Messrs. George Mitchell and Thornton Sudduth have stripped their tobacco and expect shortly to visit the land in the mountains with a view of locating there in the near future. We wish them the fullest success.

The spring birds are pouring forth their sweetest carols in compliment to Mr. O. B. Sudduth, who is sporting a braun new mackintosh coat and a World's Fair hat, as he courteously greets the ladies at evening assemblies and afternoon calls.

And he drew himself up with a resolute air. As he warbled: Oh, maiden surpassing— I've loved you long years, and I love you today. And if you'll let me, I'll love you for aye.

Miss Sarah Ann Brawner and Mr. Charles Goin's spent Saturday night and Sunday with the family of Mr. John Binkins.

Mr. Robert Fox has removed his family to LaGrange, where he proposes to reside for say about 6 months. He's a mover, sure.

Most of the farmers are preparing for quite large crops the coming season, and hopes are entertained that they will succeed beyond expectations.

In my next epistle I will endeavor to inform you where this quaint corner is situated.

MOCKING BIRD.

Blood Will Tell

Medium to good leaf	10 00 @ 15 00
Good to fine leaf	15 00 @ 20 00
Select or wrapery	18 00 @ 21 50

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by J. C. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by J. C. Cheney & Co. Sold by Druggists, price 75c per bottle.

Mrs. John G. Carlisle's Kentucky Cook Book.

The Queen & Crescent Route offers its patrons a rare chance to secure at a low price that handsome publication. It is a compilation of new receipts never before published. A book of 256 pages, containing a careful selection of practical cookery suggestions to every housewife in the land. An edition de luxe printed on heavy enameled paper and bound in white vellum, with chrysanthemum design on cover in five colors, with gold, and in every way most elaborate specimen of artistic book-making.

Mrs. Carlisle has been assisted in this collection by Mrs. Grover Cleveland, Mrs. Walter Gresham, Mrs. General Crook, Mrs. W. A. Dudley, and other householders of equal note.

The retail price is $2 50, but we will send it to any address, post-paid, on receipt of 75 cents. Don't miss the opportunity. W. C. RINEBAUGH, G. P. A., Cincinnati, O.

Prices Will Suit Times.
